

WESSON SNOWDRIFT OIL

For Salads and Cooking

THE fine flavor and wholesomeness of food shortened with Wesson Snowdrift Oil is the final test of its unrivaled quality and uniform purity. Odorless, tasteless, convenient and economical, it has a wider range of usefulness than any salad oil or shortening known to dietetic science. Use three-fourths the amount of oil as of butter. Refined by the Exclusive Wesson Process, and is the height of quality which defies competition.

LOST DUKE "SEEN" AGAIN

This Time John of Tuscany Was in Paris and London.

Paris, July 26.—Several Paris journals publish with reservations a communication from the Courier European, giving statements of Dr. Albert Perencz, a Hungarian, in regard to the question as to whether John Orth, Grand Duke of Tuscany, is alive or dead. He says he has learned from a source, which he has serious reason to believe is authentic, that Orth is still living in Argentina, where he possesses a fine estate; that not long ago Orth passed through London and Paris, revealing himself to only a few persons; that he was in the Grand Hotel in Paris in February last, bearing the name of Baron Otto.

He submitted to a formal interrogation on the part of two lawyers, one Spanish and the other Italian, and left in company with the latter, Signor de Cassorelli, for London, thence for New York, where he had a conference with an American juriconsult named Everett, formerly in the diplomatic service. Perencz cites as having seen and recognized Orth and identifying him as the Grand Duke of Tuscany, Count Karull, former secretary to Count Caserta, and Doctor Nadau, former court professor at Vienna. Karull met him in London and Nadau in Paris.

COMMUNION SET STOLEN

Thieves Make Valuable Haul in Episcopal Church.

Palmyra, N. J., July 26.—Christ Episcopal Church was entered by thieves Sunday night and the silver communion service stolen, besides several other valuable silver pieces. The robbers evidently intended to get all there was to be had, for they even broke open the poor box and stole the small sum it contained. The robbery was discovered by Paul Jones, sexton, at 7 o'clock this morning, when he opened the church for the early service. The loss cast a gloom over the parish, which worked hard to get the silver service. Some of the pieces were memorial gifts. Detective Parker of Mount Holly, and the local police have been running down clues all day.

TYPHOID FEVER OUTBREAK

Several Cases Reported From Three Japanese Battleships.

Washington, D. C., July 26.—An outbreak of typhoid fever on three Japanese battleships, in Oriental waters, has been reported to the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service. The report, which has just arrived by mail, says the Japanese battleship Iwami, carrying fifty-two officers and a crew of 729, belonging to the first squadron of the Nippon navy, en route to Omiato, Awamori, for target practice, had to transfer sixty-three cases of typhoid fever to the naval hospital at Yokohama. The battleships Mikasa and Suo arrived at Omiato with more than fifty cases of the same disease.

Nothing to Warrant Landing.

Washington, D. C., July 26.—Commander Archibald H. Davis, of the cruiser Tacoma, which was hurried to Cape Gracias a Dios last week, when reports of probable danger to Consul Edwin W. Trimmer were sent to Washington, has reported that he found nothing to warrant landing a force at either Cape Gracias or at Prinzapico, a few miles north, which port the Tacoma also visited.

HAD TO DRINK SALT WATER.

Members of Naval Militia on Monitor Without Fresh Water Two Days.

Norfolk, Va., July 26.—The monitor Ozark, having aboard between 200 and 300 members of the naval militia of the District of Columbia, arrived at the Norfolk navy yard late today for a supply of fresh water before proceeding tomorrow for New York, with the Maryland naval militia aboard the Isle de Cuba, now in Hampton Roads. Washington reserves ashore to-night on liberty said that as the result of a mishap to the Ozark's condensers they were without fresh water from yesterday until their arrival at Fort Monroe today, when ice was had, and each man was also given two bottles of beer to quench his thirst after having to drink salt water. All shore liberty to the Washington boys ended at midnight, and the Ozark is scheduled to sail for Hampton Roads at 5 A. M. tomorrow.

WAS NOT OFFERED BRIBE.

Illinois Representative Replies to Resolution of Democratic Convention.

Edwardsville, Ill., July 26.—Representative M. S. Link, of Mitchell, Madison county, issued a sworn statement yesterday saying that his vote in the Legislature had never been for sale or barter to any one, and that no bribe money ever came to him. The statement was in reply to a resolution passed by the Democratic convention, which called upon him to resign because of his alleged connection with the charges of bribery in the election of United States Senator William Lorimer.

MISSING PASTOR BACK, INSENSIBLE

HAD $200 WHEN LOST

Last Seen Friday on Westchester Car After Collecting Rent for Rectory.

New York, July 26.—The Rev. Frederick E. Mierau, pastor for the last ten years of the New Apostolic Church, in the Bronx, was returned to his home at 2510 Poplar Street, Westchester, at 10:30 o'clock Sunday night by a stranger who left him in his doorway unconscious, after he had been reported missing since Friday to the Bronx Detective Bureau and the police of the Westchester Station. He was last seen on Friday night, when, bound for home, he boarded a Westchester Avenue car in Harlem.

The Rev. Mr. Mierau's wife was so overcome by his return after two days of anxiety that she did not question the stranger who brought him nor could she give the police any description of the man. On clues that are slender enough the police are now looking for him.

Mr. Mierau's pockets were empty, fulfilling the fear of his family that he had met foul play because of the money—some $200—which he carried with him.

In reporting the pastor missing to the police Sunday, his wife said that he was without domestic or financial difficulties, that he had appeared in good health and good spirits, and she was at a loss for a reason why he should have vanished. It was her belief and the belief of his friends and parishioners that he had been waylaid, for he had more than $200 on his person.

The pastor's church is at 207 East One Hundred and Twentieth Street. His seat, widespread in Germany, has few churches in America, one of them being in Brooklyn. On Friday evening, Mr. Mierau went down to the rectory, next to the church, to collect the rent there, for it is his own property.

One of his parishioners, a man named John Wolf, met him at One Hundred and Twenty-eighth Street and Third Avenue, and the two walked together until the minister boarded the Westchester car, saying that he was going home. That was at 10 P. M.

Between him and his home, however, there lies along Westchester Avenue a dreary stretch of lovely swamp land, offering chase enough for an assault if Mr. Mierau could have been induced to get off the car through some subterfuge.

All day Saturday the family was greatly alarmed, but hardly knew what course was best to pursue.

YEAR'S GREAT FIND IS BILLY BURKE

Four-Year-Old Colt Ties World's Record in Fourth Heat.

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 26.—The second day of Grand Circuit racing at Recreation Park showed up the sensational trotter in the year in the four-year-old colt, Billy Burke, who won the feature event, the $3,000 stake, for 2:15 trotters, trotting the fourth heat in 2:06 1/4, which ties the world's record for a fourth heat, held jointly by Ben-Zetta and Bob Douglass. The gray gelding, Robbie B. McGregor, beat Billy Burke in the first heat, but after that the son of Silsby Brook had things his own way. The M. and M. candidate, Henry H., was the one to put up the fight in the final heat. He looked to have a chance to win, but broke while in the lead in the homestretch.

The 2:08 pacers had a great battle, and the race was finally won by the favorite, King Cole, waverily winning the first heat in 2:04 1/4, the fastest time of the race.

The 2:13 trot Sable Maid won rather easily. Her Baron Penn had taken the first heat. T. J. Judges did not think Driver Owings was trying to win with The Philistine in the first heat of the 2:17-pace, which Hallie Lou took with little difficulty. With Walker up in the next heat, The Philistine finished in front, but May Queen was best in the third, after which the race was postponed on account of darkness.

Track and weather conditions were again ideal for good racing. Every favorite won the contests which were finished. Summaries:

2:08 class, pacing, purse $1,000, three in five—King Baking Cole, b. h., by Bling-Redonda, first; Waverly, b. g., second; Joe Brown, b. g., third. Best time, 2:04 1/4.

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

Reveille dropped his hackles in one inning yesterday afternoon, and before he could get them up the game was lost beyond repair. Two singles and a pair of double-baggers put the Colts in bad, and there was nothing more doing. It was in that same eighth inning that the Richmond fans have been calling the "Lucky Seventh," too. About as much luck yesterday in that inning as there is in a carbuncle.

Baker received an awful swat when Spratt drove a line ball straight to his head. Baker was bowled over as clean as a whistle, and couldn't come back. The ball struck him over the temple and he was dazed. He recovered later, and will be in the game this afternoon.

Morrissey went to second base and Shaw was pulled over to take Baker's place when the accident occurred, and both held down the jobs in good form.

In fact, the only miscue of the game came when Tom Merritt made a wild heft to second base that scored Spratt.

Even though he was taken in the eighth inning, Baker managed to get one double-bagger out of twice up. It seems as if he is starting a campaign of hitting that will make him just as good a man as is in the league in his position.

Bunting continues to have the minimum number of times "at bat" in his credit. There is something in the way he handles himself by the home plate.

The $2,500 paid for Dutch Reveille by the New York Americans seems to bear with it a great big hoodoo, and the smiling pitcher bears the brunt. Since his purchase Reveille has been batted pretty hard and the average of games won has dropped. It seems also that the hits gotten off him have counted a great deal more than the same number of hits off the other pitchers.

A typographical error in The Times-Dispatch yesterday morning caused Hannifan, of the Petersburg team, to be printed "Hampton." A most curious fact is that every other newspaper in the city made precisely the same typographical mistake. Incidentally, Hannifan was hailed by one paper as a new pitcher for the Petersburg team.

Norfolk slipped one over on Danville yesterday, putting the Bugs one more step nearer to the Colts. The purchase of a few pitchers who can do business, young fellows who have their way to make and are fresh enough in the game to work their heads off if necessary, would help the Colts along rather nicely. Now is the time to do it, and now is the time to get the Colts into winning shape. Owner Bradley has a deal on now for a player, and although nothing can be said about who he is or where he plays, it is believed that he has his eye on a first-class catcher.

The work of a catcher is never more clearly shown than when the catcher has to be laid off for some time. Joe Laughlin, of Danville, had to stop the game last week, and since that time Danville has been going rather slowly.

Of course, the absence of Fanwell and Mayberry hurts, too, but Laughlin is missed by far the most. Callahan is a good man, but he is not Laughlin, and the moral effect of Laughlin's presence in the game is worth a great deal.

Youthful Couple Weds. Henderson, N. C., July 25.—A telegram was received to-night that Macy Rowland, of this city, and Miss Maggie Thaxton, of Greensboro, were married in Durham at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. The groom is twenty years of age, and the bride is eighteen years of age. They will make their future home in Henderson.
